

I strongly oppose the petition of the Consumer Bankers Association challenging Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The Indiana's law works extremely well as it is and does not need to be "tweaked". While the CBA tries to minimize the potential effect of allowing them to call, since they cannot now call, any calls would be a 100% increase, which I do not consider trivial. We would urge you to deny this petition.